Corvette Marque Club of Seattle (CMCS)

A great perk for any social club, such as CMCS, is the ability to communicate, collaborate and associate with other members with a common interest, which for our club, is our Corvettes. Having means to contact other members enhances the club and its social agenda.

CMCS respects your privacy. Therefore the club needs your consent before publishing your personal information in the CMCS printed directory. The directories are issued in May and October.

Please check the boxes below to indicate your consent for CMCS to publish your information.

Background Information

Membership Information Systems

CMCS has two independent membership information systems:

- An Web Site available only to CMCS members that have established an account that has been validated by CMCS Web Site Moderators. This holds a list of members only. You use an automated e-mail to contact other members.
- An address database that is computer based and is NOT online. The electronic files for this database are available only to Club trustees for Club operations.

CMCS Web Site Membership List

This holds a list of members only. You use an automated e-mail to contact other members. Click the “Request Contact” link adjacent to the member name, write and send a blind e-mail to the member you wish to contact. They then respond as they wish to establish contact. Other membership information is not disclosed on the site.

Address Database

This database is PC based, and is used for:

- Creating mailing covers for newsletters and other printed matter such as the annual ballots
- Birthday information for newsletters
- Creating printed directories for internal use by the membership.

It also holds event registration information for tracking, contacting and archival purposes. It does extensive queries, such as “show me all Non-CMCS addresses registered for SIS 2006”. It is the administrative database used by, and available only to, club trustees for managing club operations.

The choices you make on the consent form determine the information published in the printed directory. We send this directory twice per year, May & October, listing only member information allowed by the consent form on record with CMCS.

CMCS publishes only the member name(s) if the consent form is not on file.
